

A lecture by

Ambassador Jack F. Matlock
DEALING WITH RUSSIA:
ADVICE TO THE NEXT PRESIDENT

Monday, September 12, 2016

5:30-6:30 p.m.

309 East Duke

East Campus

Refreshments will be served after the lecture

One of America's most accomplished diplomats, Jack Matlock served in the American Foreign Service from 1956 to 1991, including as Ambassador to the Soviet Union from 1987 to 1991, Special Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs, and Senior Director for European and Soviet Affairs on the National Security Council Staff from 1983 until 1986, and Ambassador to Czechoslovakia from 1981 to 1983.

Sponsored by
Center for Slavic, Eurasian, and East European Studies
Focus Program
Rubenstein Fellows Academy